The board rider should safely take in the handle, keeping it under control until they can stop their board.

13.14 Horses & horse riders must enter the run-off shoot while decelerating and, in a gate, no faster than a trot.

- (a) The handle must have been released before entering the run-off shoot.
- (b) A boarder should avoid dropping the handle where it could catch on a cone or pole.
- (c) Horse riders should perform a controlled deceleration circle before entering the runoff gate.
- (d) Riders may be asked to go through a pre-race gate to finish the race, if this is the case it will be a requirement.
- (e) Riders should bring the horse to a complete stop in the runoff shoot. Failure to do so could result in penalisation.

13.15 Once the horse and rider have come to a complete stop, they will be allowed back into the main pit area. They must return to their allocated place and not disrupt any teams starting a run or getting ready for a run. In accordance with rule 13.7

- 13.16 Board riders can only enter the pits area via the arena exit gate. They can do this carrying speed but must not overtake or impede the horse in any way. If the board rider does not use the exit gate, they must stop the board whilst in the arena and remove it from their feet. They may then, with consideration to other competitors, enter the pits via the entry gate, or, under the fencing, when safe to do so. Board riders may not ride their boards under the fence into the pits safe area.
- 13.17 If a boarder rides their board under the fence, it will be penalised with a minimum of a yellow card.

Late Release

- 13.18 In the event of a boarder falling off, a horse rider must endeavour to release the handle before starting to slow the horse down.
- 13.19 A late Release is deemed to be when the handle is being dragged by the horse for an extended period after the boarder is no longer holding the handle.
- 13.20 An extended period is deemed to be more than 5 seconds from the boarder falling.
- 13.21 Once the team has crossed the finish line or the boarder has fallen and no longer has hold of the handle; the horse rider must first release the handle, when safe, and ride away from it before slowing the horse.
- 13.22 The horse rider should make good effort to release the handle once the board rider has crossed the finish line, when safe to do so. The board rider should keep hold of the handle until the horse rider has successfully released it from the saddle. The board rider should safely take in the handle, keeping it under control until they can stop their board.
- 13.23 If the horse rider has problems releasing the handle, or the rope becomes stuck they should reduce speed slowly to a walk, making sure they do not turn the horse onto the rope until the handle can be released, or until HBUK Officials can advise and assist. The board rider should remain with the handle for as long as possible to control the handle when released.
- (a) A horse rider should do a large circle before entering the runoff area. In accordance with rule 13.3
  - (b) Riders may be asked to go through pre-race gates to finish their run. If this has been specified and a gate is missed, a minimum of a yellow card will be issued.
- 13.24 If the horse rider cannot release the handle and the board rider needs to let go of the handle to decelerate safely, they should place the handle on the ground, taking care to avoid it becoming entangled with the board. At no point should they throw the handle away from themselves, behind them, or, in the direction of the horse.
- 13.25 A penalty will be given, at the discretion of the Referee, if the Referee decides that insufficient effort was made to effectively release the handle, and, or slow the horse in the correct manner.

- 13.26 If there is an apparent failure of the release mechanism, this will be inspected in the pits by HBUK Officials immediately after the run.
- 13.27 The team does not have to release the handle directly after the finish line if the boarder is still holding on.
- 13.28 In some situations, the team may be asked to slow down in the arena and then exit with the boarder still attached. If this is the case, it will be described during the morning safety briefing.
- 13.29 When releasing the handle, the horse rider should continue moving the horse forward, away from the handle, where it is safe to do so.
- (a) A rider must not stop the horse or turn onto the rope before or during a release.
- 13.30 Once the handle is released, the horse is not allowed to stop with 4 meters of the handles finishing position on the ground. Failure to do this will indicate that the release procedure was incorrectly followed, and a yellow card may be issued.
- 13.31 the panic release is a spring-loaded system that can snap shut on gloves, clothes, and other loose materials. If this happens the riders are advised to keep the horse in a forward motion reducing the speed to a walk and executing a 10meter circle, keeping the handle on the inside of the circle and continue this until HBUK Officials can approach the horse and make the handle safe.

Release Procedure

- 13.32 During a Horseboarding competition, it's important that riders release the rope properly when required.
- (a) Riders are advised to have the panic release on the same side of the boarders dominant foot.
- (b) During the release horse riders must keep the horse moving forward.
- (c) Riders need to unclip the panic release from the safety belt while lifting their arm straight up into the air.
- (d) Riders need to maintain balance and control on the horse.
- (e) Riders must let go of the panic release directly above their head or above their head and behind them.
- (f) If a rider does not follow the correct procedure, they may be penalised by HBUK Officials.
- (g) For incorrect release procedure HBUK officials will give a time penalty of 1 second penalty
- (h) For incorrect release procedure that presents a dangerous situation HBUK officials will card teams.

* It's crucial that riders release the rope safely and effectively to avoid accidents and ensure the well-being of both the rider and the horse. Following the proper release procedure will minimise the risk of the rope left lay across the horses back or any further complications that may come from that.

- 13.33 Teams may not trot around the course for an extended period beyond that used to negotiate a particular obstacle or situation. A yellow card will be issued for extended periods of trot. Repeated offences of extended periods of trot may result in a team being re-assessed.
- 13.34 An extended period of trot is deemed to be the more than the distance between two race gates.
- 13.35 Obstacles can be done in a trot but a canter must be resumed before the next race gate. Obstacles include the weave, 90 degree and chicane.
